Our Sugars

- Sugar cane was introduced to the island by the Dutch during their settlement between 1598 and 1710. The sugar exploitation was enhanced under French occupation and the first sugar mill was opened on the island in 1744. Sugar cane was maintained as the main crop of the island under British occupation (1810-1968) and to date forms an important part of the economy. Even today, Mauritius produces among the finest quality of Special sugars that is supplied to Europe and the United States.
- All special sugars packed at Sukpak Ltd are produced by the main sugar mills of the Island and supplied by the Mauritius Sugar Syndicate. Some of the sugars that Sukpak Ltd currently packs are: Demerara, Coffee Crystals, Golden Granulated, Fine Golden Caster, White Granulated, Raw Sugar, Dark Brown Soft, Extra Light Muscovado, Light Muscovado, Dark Muscovado and Molasses.
